Jefferson Memorial

There are numerous public buildings and monuments in Washington, but none which combines beauty and meaning so well as the Jefferson Memorial. Thomas Jefferson, we believe, is a fitting introduction to the 1954 BELL COTE, whose theme is the government of the United States because he, who played such a great role in the founding of the nation, is a challenging inspiration to the young people of our country.

The future of our country lies in us, the young people of America. On us, for the past two years, has lain the responsibility of preparing ourselves for the task of carrying this great nation ever forward. There is no better location we could have chosen to learn from first-hand experience how our government functions.. In our two years at Mount Vernon we have witnessed the inauguration of a new president of the United States; we have lived through the change of one administration to another, and have watched, here in Washington, democratic government in action. We can only hope that the knowledge gained here will enable us to go on to a constructive, full life in the years to come.

Dedication

MISS AGNES DELANO

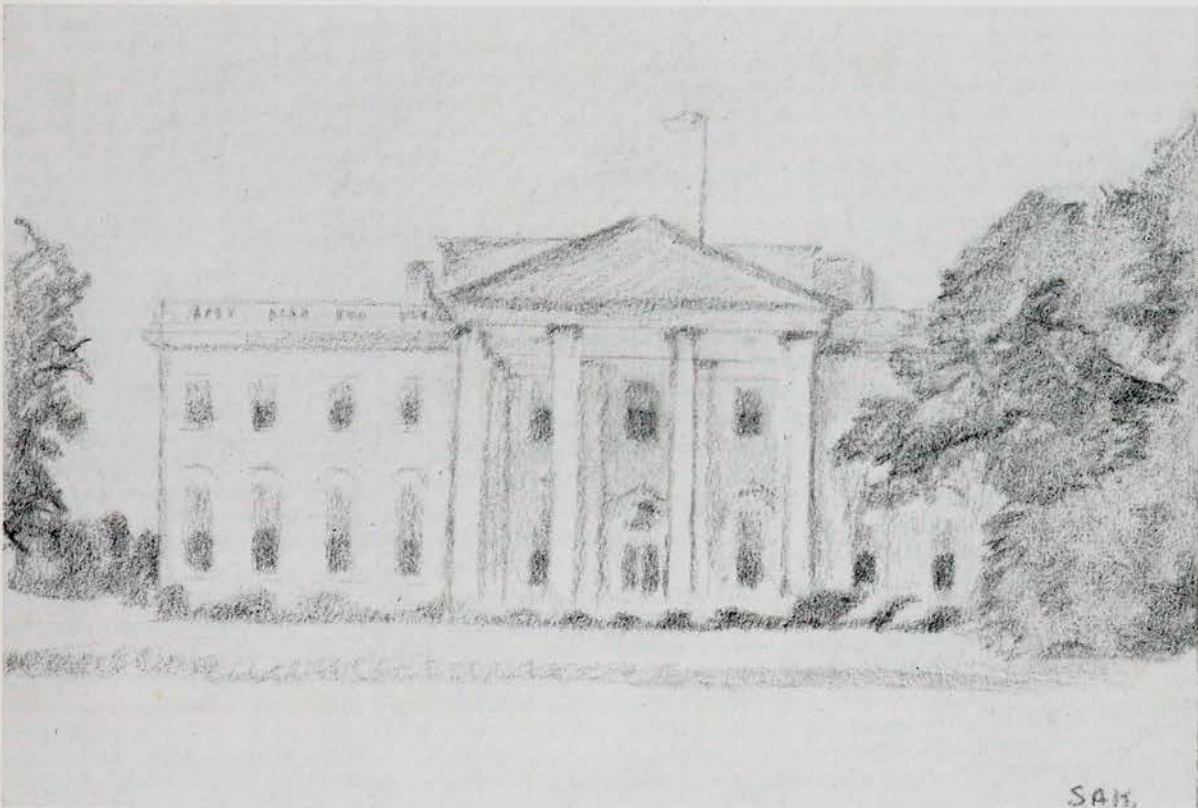

Miss Delano, you will be among our most cherished Mount Vernon memories. Your outstanding contributions in the fields of art, philosophy, and English, remain as an everlasting tribute to your unselfish efforts. The absence of your unceasing warm interest in any and all will spell a great loss to Mount Vernon in the future. We can only be thankful that we were fortunate enough to profit from your illimitable knowledge.

OUR PRESIDENT AND HIS FIRST LADY

The Cabinet

As in our national government, so here at Mount Vernon, our cabinet, the Faculty, carries out the aims and philosophies of the Administration. Though Cabinet members may have their troubles with Congress, (and vice versa), such differences are part of a healthy democratic life.

Lila Matthews, Mrs. David McLaughlin, Joan Hohlt. Absent: Chanetta Perdue.

Officers of the Senate

The Senate, the Senior Class, is the upper house of Congress. The Senate is traditionally more sedate and conservative than the House of Representatives. A smaller body than the House, it has greater powers and hence greater responsibility and prestige.

Dear Betty,

Wish I could have seen more of you this year. I've enjoyed having such a cute little sister even though you didn't even visit once. You will have to come visit me next year if I come back - we can really have some parties!!! Lots of luck in '55 as M.V. G.C. Think of all the times sometimes - regardless of what your thoughts will be. Stay slim - and cute.

Speakers of the House

The lower house, the Freshman Class, according to tradition, is the branch of Congress which is most unruly, has the most fertile ideas, and which gives the Administration more headaches than the Senate. The shootings in the National House of Representatives which occurred late in February are as nothing compared to what has often taken place in the lower house of MVJC.

Committees of the House and Senate

It is often said that the House and Senate could not conduct their business without committees. Life at MVJC would be far less interesting and fruitful were it not for the numerous activity groups which provide an outlet for all interests. In the next pages we present our Committees of Congress.

The Kitchen Cabinet

Andrew Jackson had the first Kitchen Cabinet, which everyone knows was the power behind the throne. In fact, it had more power than the regular cabinet. Mount Vernon's Kitchen Cabinet, the Cooperative Council, (it is a joint committee of faculty and students) may not have that much power, but it does exert considerable influence and is an indispensable organ of the body politic.

The Judiciary

Mount Vernon's Supreme Court has only five members as opposed to the nine on the bench of the Supreme Court of the United States. Yet it has far more difficult cases on its docket and disposes of them with far more rapidity. We believe, also, that it has as good a record for firmness and justice.

Congressional Recorder

 NANCY DEERY PATY.....Photography Editor

Every Congressman has the right to have his speeches, even the ones that he doesn't deliver, included in the Congressional Record that is the official publication of the United States Congress.

The BELL COTE does not extend the same privilege to all members of the College, but it does print a pictorial and worded portrayal of our college life while at Mount Vernon. Besides, unlike the Congressional Record, it is not printed at public expense.

The Brain Trust

First row: Joyce Brady, Anne Bateman, Joan Hohlt. Second row: Lila Matthews, E. P. Engle, Joan Robinson, Shirley Mills, Sandra Sokol.

JOAN ROBINSON.....President

SHIRLEY MILLS.....Secretary-Treasurer

Back in the New Deal era the Brain Trust was a group of young people, active in the government, who were noted for their brilliance. Mount Vernon's Brain Trust, the members of Optima, the Academic honor society, is, we are convinced, equally as brilliant. Optima, besides being a goal for each student, also does social service work.

Social Relations Committee

JUNE ROBERTS.....Co-Chairman

MARION HUBBARD.....Co-Chairman

As far as we know, the United States Congress has no comparable committee, but they might consider the idea. Our committee sponsors all social activities which go on at the College under the guidance of Mrs. Frank Hannon.

Third row: Betsy Williams, Ann Harrell, Charlotte Ogden, Nicky Knickerbocker, Reezie Pool, Martha Gierhart, Joanne Miller, Jackie Rowe. Absent from picture: Shirley Mills, Patty Randall, Mimi Chapin.

In this era of "One World" friendly relations with foreign countries are essential. The Spanish Club does its part in spreading knowledge of the Spanish speaking nations of the world. The organization sponsors many trips during the year to the various South American Embassies in Washington, to Spanish lectures, and movies.

LILA ANNE MATTHEWS.....President
 CHARLOTTE WILTON.....Secretary
 JANE CRAWFORD KEYS.....Treasurer

Lend-A-Hand, as its name implies, lends a helping hand of friendship to hospitalized children and veterans. It contributes funds annually to worthy organizations, such as the Red Cross and the Tuberculosis Association. This year, it has made many trips to welfare homes and hospitals. The Junior Children's Village and Bethesda Naval Hospital are only a few that have been cheered by our Club with a Heart.

World Affairs Commission

A student in the College is entitled to become a member of the World Affairs Club. It is the ideal place to learn about and discuss the various political situations of the day. It is especially appealing in that it invites speakers to come to Mount Vernon from time to time to discuss the foreign and domestic conditions prevalent both in this country and in other parts of the world. It is the Club's privilege to have Dr. Elmer Kayser as our bi-weekly speaker. At times we are able to secure many important outside speakers. This year we enjoyed hearing Dr. Eleanor Dulles, among others, to broaden our knowledge of world events. Dr. Kayser's sharp wit and clever caricatures of prominent political figures hold a lasting interest in this active campus club.

Pure Food and Drug Committee

BEVERY AUGUSTA BRAUN.....President

COURTENAY BRUCE BASS.....Vice-President

MARY EWING MARTIN....Secretary-Treasurer

In the years to come, the men of this country will be grateful for the training recieved in the Home Economics Club, which we choose to call the Pure Food and Drug Committee. The "Committee" consists of the students of the Food, Interior Decoration, and Clothing classes of the College.

This year the Home Economics Department gave a dinner for the University of Virginia Glee Club, and the Faculty Christmas Dinner. The members of the Club drew lots this Spring, and gave different types of dinners for the other members of the classes. The high point of the Club's activities will be the "Roommate Picnic", in late Spring.

Glee Club

PATRICIA PRICE.....President

ELLEN JANE TAYLOR.....Secretary-Treasurer

The Glee Club provides entertainment for the College, and gives to those who are interested, the opportunity to sing. Glee Club members lead the singing at Vesper and Chapel services. For the last two years they have contributed to the program during the Spring May Day week-end. This year they have helped to sponsor concerts by the University of Virginia, Howard University, and United States Naval Academy Glee Clubs.

Christian Forum

JUNE ROBERTS.....President

Established this year by popular demand of the students, the purpose of the Club is to discuss different faiths; giving everyone a better knowledge of other religions as well as their own. Our weekly speakers come from the Virginia Theological Seminary. Not only does it give the Seminary student a chance to develop ability for group speaking, but it gives us the opportunity to voice our opinions. The Forum is strongly supported, and has become an active and prominent part of Mount Vernon life.

Health and Recreation Subcommittee

First row: Lolly Kackley, Sandy Fitzpatrick, Peggy Probasco, Charlotte Ogden, Bev Braun, Miss Mills, Betsy Menrath, Sallie Matcer.

The purpose and function of the Board of A. A. is to sponsor all athletic events in the College. Headed by the President of A. A., the Board consists of students elected from the Club membership. There are two Boards, Intramural and Association. The Association Board gives parties for orphans, and serves as a representative group for the A. A. With these two executive bodies, the Athletic Association will continue through years of Mount Vernon to display the sportsmanship for which we are noted.

Health and Recreation Committee

BEVERLY AUGUSTA BRAUN . . . . . Vice-President

MARGARET WILLIAMS PROBASCO . . . . . Secretary

The Athletic Association is an active contributor to a strong College spirit. It acts as a common meeting ground for our athletic teams and those of visiting colleges. A student does not have to participate actively in athletics to be a member of the Association, but by lending school spirit and attending sports events may also become a member of the Club. The A. A. plans and organizes the sports schedule both within the College and between the College and outside schools. Our A. A. and its activities play an important part in our sport and school life, for it teaches us the bases for good sportmanship and fair play.

Varsity Hockey

Our Varsity Hockey team, under the able leadership of Betsy Menrath, made a fine record for the three games it played. The scores were:

MVJC	0	.....	George Washington	0
MVJC	3	.....	Immaculata	0
MVJC	0	.....	Marjorie Webster	4

Of the three games, Lou Sackett was high scoring player, with a total of two goals; Judy Jeeves second with one goal.

Varsity Basketball

MVJC 34.....Immaculata 34

The average score for MVJC in five games was 39 points per game, that of the opponents, 40. Joan Hohlt ended the five games with an average of 18 points, Jan Baldwin 16 points. At this writing, our team has two more games to play—Marjorie Webster and the MVJC Faculty. From past experience, we can assume that each of these games will be extremely close especially since the Faculty will be trying to avenge last year's defeat.

Varsity Volleyball

First row: Frances Corzelius, Joanne Goldwater, Holly Greeff, Nancy Paty, Susan Whitehead, Mooch Yarbrough.
Second row: Joyce Brady, Nancy Knickerbocker, Betsy Menrath, Ann Harrell, Joan Hohlt.

Our Volleyball Varsity was created only this year, but is destined to take a more than active part in the athletic life of MVJC. The only outside games played this year were a three-game series with The Gallaudet College. The result of those games were:

MVJC one game.....Gallaudet two games

The captain of the team was Besty Menrath. There is to be another series of three games played with Gallaudet in the Spring, and we can be assured that the Varsity will carry on as usual.

Congressional History

A typical introduction to Mount Vernon on September 3, 1953, ran something like this: 3:05 marked your arrival at Union Station or National Airport. At 3:07 Aunt Minnie was spied wearing her yellow ribbon. You approached her, and politely uttered your name. By 3:12 you were safely pinned with a nametag, packed into one of the school limousines, and twenty-five minutes later were driving through the gates of MVJC. By this time, you were aware that you had just been met by one woman of our campus who could keep her wits when all about her were losing theirs amidst the confused gaiety of opening day, and you realized that the following week would run with this same efficiency. On September 16, the sightseeing tours came; the Placement Tests came; the only thing that didn't come was your suitcase and trunk. However, we did survive that first week, and by October 10, were ready to present our Freshman Varieties, which marked the end of our probation period. Then we helped pull several Eastern football teams through the fall season, danced until 1 o'clock at our Christmas Dance, and finally got our bags packed for the Christmas Holidays in the middle of December.

In January the Student Body attended the President's Inauguration and Inaugural Ball. The Ingenuity Contest and semester exams were both new to us. One welcome, one not so welcome, but having lived through these, most of us attended the World Affairs Trip to New York. Soon afterwards it was warm enough for picnics and sunbaths. We spent sleepless weeks on term papers, and partly sleepless weekends at various college Spring Festivals. After a wonderful Spring vacation, May 20, the close of our Freshman year, had come.

We have found our senior year to be more difficult but perhaps more profitable, because of the lasting friendships and the lasting knowledge we have gained. The good times and fine experiences of spending two years in Washington will never be forgotten; and although we have objected to such things as Government exams and book reports, it has been said a hundred times: "If Mount Vernon were only a four year college!"

To our faculty and freshman class—we will miss you next year—We will always have the fondest memories of you and our two years that passed too quickly at Mount Vernon.

MY DEAR BETSY. I cannot begin to tell you how much you have CONTRIBUTED to making my first year at college the best! WE HAVE HAD such a good time together - and still it hasn't been all smiles which might tend to make our friendship overindulging.

YOU'RE a dear cousin, and as the folks and boys say! Two hands TOGETHER !!! APART - nothing !!!

YOU'RE the GREATEST !

JACKSON MOTHER -----!

Dear Betsy!

To begin with let me tell you how I am one good at writing in Uncle Books, I never can say what I want to. I'm so glad that we got 50% of our friends Betsy & I hope we always remain so. We've had so much fun this year & done things I'll never forget. It makes me sad to think that I won't be back here next year with "you guys." However, wherever we are I'm sure we'll always be able to get together & have repeats of our Richmond trip.

See you this summer, Joe!

Love,
Ann

Dear Betty,
It seems so strange after a whole year of laughing to have to say good-bye to your friendship means a year to me and as the year goes by, it will mean even more. Although all we not smile, although all us somehow managed to keep your laugh spots will with, and you, but I thank you enough to see you as much as possible. I don't hope you can come to see me whenever you can. I only see

Dear Betty,
Well, we have come to the end of our second year of schooling together.
We've enjoyed both of them very much.
Even though we had to meet at Stratford we're glad we did because we never would have been at N.O.S.C. This year if you hadn't told me about it and talked me into coming up here. Betty I've enjoyed these two years so much and we have learned a lot about each other besides the books. I'm so glad that you got to come in and spend this year cause it would not have been the same without being way up on second. I guess we have all had our good times & had times but put them together & it all adds up to one great year. Betty you are a wonderful, fine girl and I will always remember you as one of the greatest people.
I want to come see you this summer
if you can. I'll be there.

I just don't know where to begin. This has really been a wonderful year for me and you have helped make it. I'm looking forward to next year. As a matter of fact I think it will be the greatest. I couldn't have a better room mate and that makes me look forward to next year all the more.

Even though we are "Big Mamas" we have fun. Next year we will surprise everybody with our "petit figures". At least we can say we try.

Betty, I know I will see you late this summer. I'm counting on you keeping the Greenfield road hot.

Lots of love,
Campford

"Don't forget your fence - ~~your~~ cause we are really going to travel."

We hope we will be seeing all more of my old N.C. gal in the years to come. Still am undecided about next year - but will probably be with you at U.S.C. Love ya Betty.
